Comments

Observation #1 – this group opts for a God on Tap Session versus a fun activity like tobogganing. This just highlights their “hunger” for learning spiritual truths. They are truly growing in grace and knowledge. Each week now, a scribe records the lessons and comments on the board. I’ve included a couple of pics with this report.

Observation #2 – certain members are inviting their friends which explains the bump in visitors for the Thursday God on Tap Sessions.

Observation #3 – Six of the Weekenders worship with me (Doug) at TGP on Sundays. Two of the Weekenders now worship at the Lutheran Church in West Lorne, indicating they enjoy the traditional style of worship.

Observation #4 – A praise and worship team has met twice for practice and will be ready after one more practice to lead a worship gathering on campus, and contribute on a Sunday. Three of our students are quite musical!

Observation #5 – The active students are already excited for the upcoming summer reunion, set for the Canada Day Weekend, in Cambridge, ON.

Observation #6 – Our visiting alumni have each commented on how this year's group is extremely interactive, and the bonds among them are very kind and hospitable.

Observation # 7 – It was east to get volunteers to go with Lizza this coming Sunday, to represent CCF at the Blenheim Baptist Church. A recent alumnus is putting the video together.

Blessings - Doug
